Re: Thomas C. "Doc" Miller CC: Bryan Shaha

Regarding: Brown Investigation 03-03413

Good day Mr. Sapakoff,

I think I may have forgot to mention that one of the two cases where Attorney Miller actually paid me a percentage of the proceeds from a client was in Mr. Brown's case. Although Attorney Miller did not pay me the full 10% that he had agreed to pay, he did indeed pay me 10% of one $10,000 payment the Browns tendered. Attorney Miller also paid me $1200 once when he received a $14,000 plus payment from Bryan Shaha at the Alternate Defense Counsel for his representation in my case #00CR3371 or 00CR2419.

Additionally, Attorney Miller demanded that I prepare an invoice for services rendered to Mr. Kevin Brown, since Attorney Miller's payments to me were ostensibly for "computer services." I did, indeed, prepare an invoice for Mr. Brown and submitted it to Attorney Miller. I have no knowledge of any payment on that invoice. It is attached for your information.

Best regards,

Steve Gartin
